AU PROFIT DE L'APE

A Halloween-themed poster with a dark orange and black color palette. The background features a large, full moon with a witch flying on a broomstick across it. In the center, there is a silhouette of a haunted house with lit windows. The scene is framed by dark, leafless trees. At the bottom, there are two jack-o'-lanterns with menacing faces, and a row of small white ghost icons. The text is arranged in a central column, with decorative dotted lines separating the date and time information.
